STEVE VIZARD

Steve Vizard is a Gold Logie and multi award winning writer, performer, producer, broadcaster and lawyer.

After studying Law and Philosophy at University of Melbourne, where Steve and his mates established the University Law Revue, Steve became a partner in a city law firm. While practicing international law,

Steve wrote extensively for theatre and television, including co-writing his first feature film screenplay, The Bit Part, starring Nicole Kidman, for which he was nominated for a Writers Guild Award for best Screenplay.

In 1989 Steve created, produced, was head writer and starred in the iconic and multi award winning Fast Forward (and subsequently Full Frontal), which for ten years were Australia's highest-rating and longest-running prime time television comedy shows.

In the ensuing years Steve produced, created and wrote for numerous groundbreaking programmes, from the acclaimed Big Girls Blouse to The Micallef P(r)ogram(me), helping to bring to life many of our most enduring comedic creations with artists including Eric Bana, Shaun Micallef, Jane Turner, Gina Riley, Magda Szubanski, Marg Downey, Rebel Wilson, Maryanne Fahey, Glenn Robbins, Adam Zwar, Kitty Flanagan, Julia Morris, Daina Reid and Hamish and Andy.

With Andrew Knight, Steve founded and was Chairman of Artist Services, one of Australia's largest independent film and television production houses, producing several series of SeaChange, the ABC's highest rating drama series. Artist Services produced award-winning and internationally acclaimed mini-series, such as Kangaroo Palace and Simone de Beauvoir's Babies, and feature films including Richard Flanagan's The Sound of One Hand Clapping and The Dead Letter Office.

As a producer and creator, Steve's shows have received more than twenty Logies, a dozen AFI and Television Society Awards, and an International Emmy nomination. As a performer, he has been nominated for a Gold Logie four times, taking one home in 1991, and has won several Logies, Television Society Awards, four Australian Writers Guild Awards and a Variety Club Award.

As a presenter, Steve hosted his own top-rating, five-nights-a-week national television show, Tonight Live with Steve Vizard, interviewing over a thousand major artists and celebrities. Steve's interviewees include a who's who, from entertainment legends Bob Hope, Tim Robbins, Mel Gibson, Chevy Chase, Cilla
